(...) Cristina González came to tell us about her "Los Peces de Cristina" project a little before packing and returning to the American lands. She already did a previous promotional tour months ago and now at the end of August, she will move to Los Angeles to work with Marcus Bell. But before that, the Vallesana woman who wanted to give a concert at home because of the weather, has an appointment at the FNAC of Callao tomorrow Thursday (already played in Chueca days ago in the inaugurated Plaza de las Reinas) with the songs from her second album, "Sky" that came out last year as the protagonist. ## RADIO SABADELL

Los Peces de Cristina will present songs of the new album this coming Sunday at La Capella de Can Gambús - 13/04/2017

<https://radiosabadell.fm/noticia/los-peces-de-cristina-avancaran-temes-del-nou-disc-aquest-diumenge-la-capella-de-can-gambus>

Los Peces de Cristina avançaran temes del nou disc aquest diumenge a La Capella de Can Gambús

La sabadellense Cristina González, amb el seu projecte musical Los Peces de Cristina, avançarà aquest diumenge a La Capella de Can Gambús alguns dels temes del seu segon àlbum titulat Sky. Un disc que veurà la llum el pròxim 27 d'abril.

Sky és un àlbum produït per Marco Cinelli, guitarrista i productor establert entre París i Londres. Una col·laboració forjada, en part, des de la distància i que ha permès donar al disc un format més acurat i professional. González, col·laboradora del Xocolata Express Ràdio Sabadell, ha explicat en declaracions als serveis informatius que amb la col·laboració de Cinelli buscava deixar enrere l'auto producció del primer àlbum 'El tiempo que guardé'. "Volia fer una cosa diferent amb una producció especial. Em va agradar molt el seu estil i la finor que té per mesclar", ha assegurat.

Sky segueix comptant amb la natura com a font d'inspiració i cada tema és una referència al cel i a les seves mil cares com la llum i la força del dia, el blanc de l'hivern, el misteri de la nit o la bellesa i lluita de la tempesta. Un àlbum amb lletres exclusivament en anglès, al marge d'una cançó en castellà, i que ja compta amb un avançament titulat One Day. Un single que compta amb un vídeoclip amb la natura com a rerefons i amb efectes de time-lapse elaborat pel seu germà que es dedica a la fotografia. "Estic molt contenta del resultat final del vídeo".

Los Peces de Cristina han preparat per La Capella un repertori basat en temes del nou disc, així com del primer àlbum. Un concert amb banda i que començarà a dos quarts d'una del migdia. A més, és gratuït.

TRANSLATION:

The local from Sabadell Cristina Gonzalez, with her musical project, Los Peces de Cristina, will make headlines on La Capella de Can Gambús this Sunday, some of the songs from her second album, entitled Sky. A record that will be released on April 27th.

Sky is an album produced by Marco Cinelli, a guitarist and producer established between Paris and London. A collaboration forged, partly, from the distance and that has allowed to give to the album a more careful and professional format. González, a contributor to Xocolata Express Ràdio Sabadell, explained in declarations to the informative services that, with the collaboration of Cinelli, was looking to leave behind the self production of the first album 'El tiempo que guardé.' "I wanted to do something different with a special production. I really liked his style and the refine style he has for mixing" she said.

Sky keeps counting on nature as a source of inspiration and each theme is a reference to the sky and its thousand faces, such as the light and strength of the day, the winter white, the mystery of the night or the beauty and storm fight. An album with lyrics exclusively in English, apart from a song in Spanish, and which already has an advance titled: One Day, a single that has a music video with nature as a backdrop and with effects of time-lapse made by his brother who is dedicated to photography. "I'm happy with the final result of the video."

Los Peces de Cristina have prepared for La Capella a repertoire based on songs from the new album, as well as the first album. A concert with band and that will begin 12:30pm. In addition, it is free.
